PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

FERISONAL AND SOCIAL.

Social doings have been confined the last few days almost entirely to the home circle. Numbers of Christmas-tree parties took place on Saturday night and on last night. At the residence of Mr. Sevelion Brown, his four children had a gay party, attended by crowds of their young friends, on Saturday night, and at Mr. and Mrs. Youmans' a similar festivity delighted a large gathering of little ones. Mr. Youmans personated Santa Claus and distributed gifts.

FUNERAL SERVICES OVER THE REMAINS OF THE DEAD STATESMAN.

Albany Puts on Emblems of Mourning as a Tribute to His Memory.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS CARINET TESTIFY TO THEIR REGARD.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Business has generally been suspended to-day as a tribute to the memory of Daniel Man-ning. No citizen of Albany has ever been accorded such a tribute as has been paid to the memory of the ex-Secretary to-day. Emblems of mourning throughtout the city indicate the respect in which he was held. The President, accompanied by Secretaries Bayard, Fairchlid, and Lamar, Postmaster-General Vilas, Attorney-General Garland, and Private Secretary Lamout, arrived by the West Shore road about 8 o clock this morning. Colonel Rice, Governor Hill's private secretary; Mayor Thatcher, ex-Mayor Banks, and Erastus Corning, met the party at the rallway station with sleighs and conveyed them to the Executive Mansion, There breakhast was caten, the party being the guests of the Governor. been accorded such a tribute as has been veyed them to the Executive Mansson, There breakfast was eaten, the party being the guests of the Governor.

The remains of the dead statesman reposed in a black cloth-covered casket in the front parlor of his son James residence, No. 140 Lancaster street, from 0 to 11 o'clock this morning, where they were viewed by numbers of his friends. The family felt constrained to limit the number of those to whom this privilega was extended out of alliference to the off-repeated wish of Mr. Manning. The house listel is also too small to afford accommodations to any large number of mourners.

AT THE CHURCH.

Services were conducted for the family at the house at 130 this afternoon by Rev. J. L. Reese of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Upon the conclusion of the services the remains were removed to St. Paul's, where the public services were held. The City Hall bell toiled every fifteen seconds while the funeral cortege was passing from the church to the Rural Cemetery. Pully two hundred printers of the union, of which Mr. Manning was always proud to have been a member, many of them veterans, accompanied the remains. The bearers were the six formen representing the six different departments of the Argus establishment, as follows: James J. Wall. Michael J. McNulty, Michael J. Nolan, John Gray, George T. Tice and David H. Walde. They were all given their first start in life by their late employer, and under the circumstances it was thought eminently fit and proper that this honer should be accorded them. Most of them have risen from the pest of office boy under Mr. Manning a supervision.

At the chapel the burnil prayers were said by the Rev. Dr. Resse, and the remains were them placed in the vault without further ceremony. There they ulli rest until spring, and then will be interred in the family lot, in the centre of which is a handsome and massive sarrophagus. The plot is in one of the most beautiful portions of the cemetery. That of the Weed family, where are interred the remains of Tantylow Weed, is just west of the Manning lot. BESSIE BULKLEY WANTS HER HASTY MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

What She Avers in Her-Bill of Complaint.

Bessie J. Bulkley, nee Hillyer, daughter of Judge C. J. Hillyer, who recently closed with G. G. Bulkley and was married in Baltimore, to-day, through her father, filed a bill in court asking. "That the pretended marriage may be declared illegal and invalid in its inception and annulled absolutely." The document then goes on to make the following statements: The complainant, Bessie Hillyer, is its years of age and the defendant 20.

On the 20th of last December a marriage corsinous was performed in Baltimore by the flew W. M. Ferguson (a certificate of the marriage is appended to the bill. "The marriage ceremony," the bill states, was and is invalid and void, and no legal marriage in fact ever took place." The complainant never legally consented to the marriage, and the formal consent that she gave was obtained by fraudulent articles, misrepresentation and by invests which absolutely deprived her of the power to give a rational consent.

In addition to those considerations the resentation and by invests which shochiely deprived her of the power to give a rational consent.

In addition to those considerations the laws of Maryland prohibit the celebration of any marriage license, and provide that no license can be issued to a person onder the age of 21 unless the mutual consent of the parents formally attested by two witnesses, is filled with the clerk. Since their marriage side has been defined and the defendant is only 20 years of age, his birthday having occurred in August has, and the written consent of the parents of either party was not filed.

The license was obtained by young bulk-low following streaming that he was 21 years of all the bulk of the parents of either party was not filed. The North Capital Street Extension to be Carried Through.

It is denied at the District buildings that the extension of North Capital street has been abundaned. The letter of Attorney Biddle on this subject was written before he was accommissed, with all the derivations of the commissions of the commission of the commis on this subject was written before he was acquainted with all the circumstances relating to the Praspect Hill Cemetery, through which the extension would pass.

Colonel Ludlow states that some time ago the Cemetery Association subdivided their property and laid out a portion of it in building lots, leaving ample room, for cemetery purposes. The partion which was subdivided into building lots being on a line with the extension of North Capitol street, the association dedicated the right of way through their property.
